One day Harry and I are talking at sunset in the open, thatch-roofed restaurant of Mvuu Lodge as the grunts of the hippos basking by the bank grow ever louder and more percussive, accompanied by other vocalizations I cannot identify- wild things revving up for the night. Meanwhile, private stores in considerable quantities had come on board, bearing Sir Edgar Desmond's name upon them, and these I had had carefully stowed away by themselves.
